THIS PAPER MAY BE CITED IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER:

Eggers, D. M. 2002. Alaska Salmon Hatchery Releases, Commercial Fishery Catch Statistics, and Sport Fishery Catch Statistics for 2001 Season. (NPAFC Doc. No. 634). Alaska Department of Fish and Game, Division of Commercial Fisheries, P.O. Box 25526, Juneau, AK. 99802-5526. 8p.

Hatchery Releases

In 2001 there were 29 private nonprofit, 3 federal, and 2 state hatcheries operating in Alaska. Most of these facilities (22) are located in southeast Alaska (Figure 1). The Cook Inlet Prince William Sound region has 11 hatcheries and the Kodiak region has 2 hatcheries.

Alaskan hatcheries released approximately 1.48 billion fish (Table 1). Of the fish released 64% were pink salmon and 34% were chum salmon. Hatcheries in Prince William Sound and Cook Inlet contributed 57% of the fish released.

Commercial Catch Statistics.

The preseason expectation for the 2001 commercial salmon season was for a commercial catch of 142 million. As it turned out, the all-species catch reached 174.9 million. In 2001, the overall catch of pink salmon was considerably higher than expected (an actual catch of 127.6 million compared to the preseason projection of 92.7 million). Table 2 shows 2001 harvest numbers by species and fishing area (Figure 2), in units of fish harvested, and Table 3 provides this information in units of pounds harvested.

The ex-vessel value of the commercial harvest continued its long downward trend. The preliminary estimate for the total value of Alaska's 2001 harvest is $214 million down further from the low estimate of $275 million for 2001; and significantly down from the $370 million for 1999, $261 million for 1998, $297 million for 1997, $378 million for 1996, $487 million for 1995, and $489 million for 1994.

Sport Fishery Catch Statistics.

Sport fishery catches in Alaska, by species, is provided in Table 4. Inseason harvest information, postseason statistics, and other information about salmon in Alaska can be found at <http://www.adfg.state.ak.us>
